Staff Privacy Notice

At SJR Sports we respect the privacy of our employees and volunteers. The personal information that we collect about you is used only to manage your employment with us and to meet the relevant requirements of employment and childcare legislation. Our lawful basis for processing your personal information is to fulfil our legal obligations as an employer and childcare provider. Our legal condition for processing any health-related information that you provide is to meet the obligations of employment law.

Any information that you provide to us is kept secure whilst you are in our employment, and data that is no longer required* is erased after you leave our employment.

We will use the contact details you give us to contact you via phone or email so that we can send you information about your employment, the Club and other relevant news.

We will only share personal information about you with another organisation if we:

- have a safeguarding concern that relates to you; or
- are required to by government bodies or law enforcement agencies; or
- engage a supplier to process data on our behalf (eg to process our payroll); or
- have obtained your prior permission.

You have the right to ask to see the data that we have about yourself, and to ask for any errors to be corrected. We will respond to all such requests within one month. You can also ask for the data to be deleted, but note that

- we will not be able to continue to employ you if we do not have sufficient information about you
- even after you have left our employment, we have a statutory duty to retain some types of data for specific periods of time* so we can't delete everything immediately.

If you have a complaint about how we have kept your information secure, or how we have responded to a request to access, update or erase your data, you can refer us to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).
